GEMMA'S CORNER

Hello Everyone!! Well...it has been 2 years...and what an absolutely insane couple of years we have all endured. It certainly has not been easy and I would personally, along with my father, like to extend my deepest condolences to the families of anyone who has been lost during these unprecedented times. As for Stuart & I, we are still here! Things have been rough undeniably, BUT we have heard from more people than ever that NOW is the time to get out of DODGE! Everyone seems excited and anxious to get back to traveling. I know from my own personal standpoint I have missed you all so very much & have most definitely missed helping dreams come true and escorting tours to all the incredible places in the world. We have exciting tours coming up including an all inclusive stay at one of the TOP resorts in the Dominican Republic, sponsored by the Naja Shrine Temple - that tour departs November 13th then we have our Branson Christmas Shows Tour November 26th as well. All others scheduled are listed on the back of this page, along with tours in the pipeline and discounts available! Thank you so much all of you xoxo
